America Recycles Day

The theme of this year's Recycling Day is "It All Comes Back to You." The goal of America Recycles Day is to build consumer demand for recycled products and to educate all Americans about the environmental and economic benefits of recycling. We want to make consumers aware of the importance of "Buying Recycled."

What kinds of things can be recycled? Here are most of what you can recycle: <http://www.enn.com/ecosystems/article/28729>

Where can you recycle? Find out at: <http://www.housing.uiuc.edu/living/recycle/where.htm>

Sponsored by Campus Rec.

Raffle

If you read the Illini Greek this week you should be able to answer the question below. Reply with your answer to Michelle Hart at moutlaw@illinois.edu and your name goes in the raffle to be eligible for one of the three certificates to restaurants, stores, etc. of your choice (if you win) - this will count toward Fall 2008.

Volunteer Opportunity
Carle Clinic Family Fun at the North Pole
December 4, 2008

Carle Clinic is looking for volunteers for this event. It is a free community event featuring live reindeer, children's performances, ornament-making, refreshments, a story by Santa and a special gift for each child. Last year, the event drew more than 2,000 kids and families. We are looking for up to 100 volunteers. In exchange for their time, volunteers will receive a t-shirt and a letter from Carle Clinic administration thanking them for their time. Please contact Stefanie by October 10 to volunteer. She can be reached at (217) 383-7508 or at Stefanie.Adams@Carle.com.

Run to Support Alzheimer's

On April 11, 2009 lace up your running shoes and join Team CARE for the Illinois Marathon! By joining Team CARE you can help fund life-saving research and provide hope for the 5.2 million Americans living with Alzheimer's disease. Team CARE will be involved in the Illinois Marathon, Half Marathon, and 5k with a fundraising minimum of $200. All money raised by the efforts of Team CARE help us offer care, support and education in communities nationwide for the estimated 5 million Americans with Alzheimer's disease. For more information please visit the Team CARE website at <http://IllinoisMarathon.kintera.org/2008> or contact Kim Oakley at 847-933-2413 or kim.oakley@alz.org. Make your run, a run for the Memory of Alzheimer's victims!

Certified Housing Reciprocal Agreement Information

Due: November 14, 2008

To apply for contract release under the Reciprocal Agreement the (Student A) must:

1. Print the reciprocal application using Adobe PDF (2 pages) from www.housing.uiuc.edu and follow the instructions.
2. (Student A) applying for release complete section A. Sections B & C must be completed by either:
 - 1) the Certified Housing Manager
 - 2) Greek Chapter President or
 - 3) Housing Information Office.

These qualified representatives must attach the required documentation (see examples above) that supports the reason the student (Student B) is leaving the certified unit. The student (Student B) in cooperation with the chapter president or manager of the certified unit helps to complete sections B and C and provides required documentation.

3. The student applying for release under reciprocal (Student A) must then return their completed application and required documentation in person no later than Friday, November 14, 2008 to: Housing Information Office at 100 Clark Hall, 1203 S. Fourth St., Champaign, IL

4. If the student turns in her/his reciprocal application and required documentation by the November 14 deadline, s/he will receive an email from Housing Information Office notifying her/him of the status of the application. Depending on where s/he currently lives the student needs to do the following:

- a) Students approved for release who currently live in the University Residence Halls need to do nothing further; the Housing Information Office will cancel their URH contract. If an approved student changes their mind and decides she/he does not want to cancel her/his contract, she/he must contact the Housing Information Office prior to Friday, November 28, 2008. Students are responsible for checking out with the area office at the end of the semester.
- b) Students approved for release who currently live in a private-certified residence hall or Greek Unit must contact their Hall Manager or Chapter President upon approval of this agreement to notify them of the contract cancellation for Spring 2009 by November 28, 2008. Please call the Housing Information Office at 333-1420 or email certhsg@uiuc.edu should you have any questions concerning the process.

NOTE: There are no extenuating circumstances. It is the responsibility of the student applying to have all required documentation complete and on file by November 14, 2008 at 100 Clark Hall for consideration.
